Mrs. Anna Ankeney Dies in California At Advanced Age

Word has been received by Miss Mabel Otis of the passing of Mrs. Anna H. Ankeney in Whittier, Calif., on December 6, 1939, at the age of 99 years, eight months and 16 days.

Mrs. Ankeney was the widow of Wm. Ankeney and formerly lived at 1624 Pennsylvania avenue. She was a sister of Amos Hiatt, for whom the Amos Hiatt Junior High school is named. After Mr. Ankeney's death she made her home with the Hiatts at East Twelfth and Buchanan streets in Des Moines. When the Hiatt family moved to Ceres, Calif., Mrs. Ankeney accompanied them.

Since the death of Mr. and Mrs. Hiatt she had made her home in Whittier. For the past few weeks she had been in a rest home. Mrs. Rose Farnsworth, who as a young girl had been taken into her home in Des Moines, now lives in Los Angeles and has been as a daughter to her in her later years.

Mrs. Ankeney was a woman of a sweet disposition, a strong Christian character, and always saw the best in her friends. She thought her nurses were so good to her, and they in turn appreciated Mrs. Ankeney's spirit and loved her for it.

Emma K. Blaise Dies in Rapids

(The Tribune's Iowa News Service)

CEDAR RAPIDS, IA.—Mrs. Emma K. Blaise, 92, formerly one of Iowa's best known women in politics, died in a nursing home here at 5:15 a. m. Wednesday, after a long illness.

She left Des Moines in 1954 after living there 56 years. She had been living here with a son, Karl P. Blaise.

She was born Apr. 6, 1868, at Sigourney.

Widow

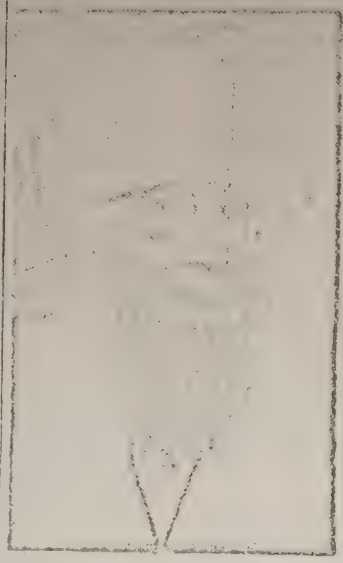
Mrs. Blaise helped get the state board of control started when it was established in 1898 and remained on duty with Republican candidates and the Republican state central committee for 31 years.

She married J. Phillip Blaise, an attorney, in 1889 at Toledo. He died in 1922.

Both Mrs. Blaise and her husband were lawyers and court and convention reporters. Both went to Des Moines from Sigourney.

Governors

Mrs. Blaise served as secretary to three governors, the first woman secretary to an Iowa governor; finance commissioner in the Des Moines city council for five years; mayor of Des Moines for a week in 1926; was the governor's pardon clerk for six years before she was secretary to Governors George W. Clarke, William L. Harding and Nathan E. Kendall; reporter for the Polk County grand jury; right-hand woman to Senator Albert B. Cummins in all his campaigns from 1902 through 1924 and to Charles A. Rawson, Republican state chairman from 1912 to 1922.



MRS. EMMA K. BLAISE

Lutheran

Mrs. Blaise left the statehouse in 1925 when John Hammill became governor and went back to the courthouse to become a grand jury reporter.

She was a member of St. John's Lutheran Church in Des Moines and several civic and business organizations.

Immediate survivors include her son, Karl, two grandchildren and one great grandchild.

Graveside services will be at 11 a. m. Friday in Glendale cemetery, Des Moines, with Dr. Henry Opperman of St. John's Lutheran Church officiating.
